

A Test of Waiting

1. Wait until you read every question before filling in the blanks. Fold the top right corner down as a signal that you have completed this test.
2. How many times have you had to wait in line this week? _____ times.
3. Underline the statement that is true for you.

It is harder to wait for something good I am expecting to happen than something I dread.

It is harder to wait for something I dread to happen than for an expected good thing.

4. Take you time and print your name neatly on the line below.

5. Name an animal noted for its slowness. _____
6. Common expressions about slowness include, “slow as molasses” and “slow as Christmas.”

Make up your own expression about slowness and write it on the line below.

7. Complete only question #5 and the question asking you to write your name.
8. Write the slow animal’s name backwards.